

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Individual directors and the superintendent will have no pecuniary interest, directly or indirectly, in any contract, the purchase of any goods or services, or any other activity paid from school district funds, except as permitted in the following:

1. A director, or his or her spouse or dependents, or the spouse or dependents of the superintendent may be paid no more than 1,000 in any calendar month for unskilled day labor;
2. A director may be employed as a bus driver at the same compensation and on the same terms as other district bus drivers; and
3. A director may enter into a contract with the district to offer goods and services (except for legal services) if the director or officer does not receive more than $3,000 in any calendar month under the contract. The district will maintain a list of all contracts covered under this paragraph and the list will be available for public inspection and copying.
4. A school director may be designated as district clerk and/or purchasing agent.
5. The spouse of a director or the superintendent may be employed as a substitute teacher on the same terms and at the same compensation as other substitute teachers in the district, if the following conditions are met: the superintendent finds that the number of qualified substitute teachers in the school district is insufficient to meet anticipated needs for short-term and one-day substitute teachers; and the superintendent ensures that assignments of substitute teachers to available positions is done in a fair and impartial manner.
6. If a director's or officer's spouse was employed by the district as a classified or certificated employee before the director or officer took office, the spouse's employment contract can be renewed. The terms of the contract must be commensurate with the pay plan or collective bargaining agreement operating in the district for that position.
7. In school districts with fewer than 200 FTE students, the board may employ the spouse of a director or the superintendent as a certificated or classified staff member.
8. A director may be employed as a substitute teacher or a substitute educational aide in school districts with 300 or less FTE students, provided that the terms of the contract are commensurate with the pay plan or collective bargaining agreement operating in the district for that position. The board must find that the number of qualified substitute teachers and educational aides in the district is insufficient to meet anticipated needs.
9. A director or officer may have a remote interest in a contract. The interest, though, must be disclosed prior to board action and must be recorded in the official minutes.

A director may not vote on the authorization, approval or ratification of a contract in which he or she is beneficially interested and to which one of the exemptions described above applies. Before the board approves a contract in which a director is beneficially interested, the director must disclose his or her interest to the board, and the director's interest must be noted in the official minutes.

Before the board approves the employment of a director, a director's or an officer's spouse, or a director's or an officer's dependent, the superintendent or designee will inform the board of other individuals who are qualified for and interested in the position(s) to be filled. The district will not discriminate in any way against any applicant for a certificated position or any certificated employee on the basis of a family relationship with a school director or the superintendent. All employment decisions will be made on the basis of choosing the applicant which furthers the best interests of the school district.

Whenever a director, or his or her spouse or dependent is employed by the district, the director will refrain from participating in or attempting to influence any board action affecting the employment status of the director, spouse or dependent. Actions affecting employment status include, but are not limited to, hiring, establishing compensation and fringe benefits, setting working conditions, conducting performance evaluations, considering or imposing discipline and termination.

The superintendent will maintain a log of any contract subject to this policy and annually, or when a new director assumes office, shall inform the board of the existence of all such contracts.
